

WHY A NEW ROMAN MISSAL?

What is the Roman Missal? The Roman Missal is the book containing the prayers of the Mass: the prayers prayed by the celebrant and deacon as well as the prayers prayed by the people.

Formerly called the Sacramentary, it is used by the priest at the altar and the chair and by the deacon in celebrations which he leads. In the Roman Missal may be found

- the Order of Mass, those prayers which, apart from some options such as the choice among several Eucharistic Prayers or among the three forms of the Penitential Rite, remain the same in every Mass;
- the Proper of the Seasons, the prayers proper to (hence the name) the Seasons of the Lord in the Liturgical Year, for example the prayers for the Season of Lent, the Sacred Triduum, the Easter Season, Ordinary Time, etc.;
- the Proper of the Saints, the prayers for the celebrations of the Blessed Mother, the saints and certain events commemorated by the Church, arranged by date according to the liturgical calendar
- the Common of the Saints, prayers which may be used for a particular category of celebration, for example, for the celebration of an apostle or martyr, or the anniversary of a dedication of a church. The existence of Commons prevents having to repeat a given prayer text many times in different celebrations which belong to the same category.
- Ritual Masses, prayers used for the celebration of the sacraments when they are joined with Mass, for example, for the baptism of infants, or for marriage;
- a wide variety of prayers which may be used in Masses for special needs or occasions, for example, in Masses of thanksgiving; in Masses for peace and justice; in times of war, for refugees and exiles, and many more.

- sung settings for the Eucharistic Prayers

Why a new Roman Missal? There are two principal answers to this question: Benefiting from Experience The Latin edition of the Roman Missal was published in 1970 and a second, slightly revised edition in 1985. The preparation for the 1985 edition involved world-wide consultation with bishops, diocesan personnel and local parishes in order that the work of revision might benefit from experience with the 1970 edition. In the end, the 1985 revision was much less extensive than originally planned, largely because it became clear that the revision required was more complex than originally anticipated and a great deal of work needed to be done on translation before a satisfactory comprehensive version could be completed. The preparation of the new Roman Missal has benefited both from the work done in preparation for the 1985 edition, and the experience of the almost twenty years since that edition was promulgated.

New Saints in the Liturgical Calendar:

Another reason which motivates the preparation of the new Roman Missal involves changes in the liturgical calendar. Since the first revised Roman Calendar was issued in 1970 and updated in 1985 second edition of the Missal, many new saints have been added to the liturgical calendar. While some of the prayers for the celebrations of these saints can be taken from the Commons, all have at least an Opening Prayer which is reflective of their life and call to holiness. The prayers for these saints, having been presented in Latin, must also be translated into the vernacular and those on the Universal Calendar incorporated into the new Roman Missal. This whole process enriches the Church with many new models in the faith, but it also takes time and effort, and is one of the reasons that the preparation of the Missal has taken so long.

EVENTS @ ST. PAUL'S

Happy Father's Day - A Prayer of Blessing

God our Father, You create and sustain all things out of Your love so great and deep that we are moved to respond with awe, thanks and praise. Let your love embrace and protect fathers. Heal what is broken, guide what is uncertain and strengthen what is good, let your love provide food for their journey and give them joy every day of their lives. And let their lives reflect your love to their families and friends, in their work and worship, to all whom they encounter and in all that they do. Bless our fathers, your sons and all who have gone before them, those fathers who have died and who sleep in your loving care. We ask this in the name of Christ our Lord.

Estimados Hermanos y Hermanas en Cristo –

Después de haber contemplado ampliamente la obra de Jesús en su misterio pascual, realización del proyecto salvífico del Padre, y de acogerla en el don de su Espíritu, colocamos hoy nuestra mirada en el misterio de la Santísima Trinidad.

“Tres personas distintas, un solo Dios verdadero”, así confesamos al Dios en quien nuestra vida fue sumergida bautismalmente. En un día como hoy proclamamos que la vida trinitaria, la intimidad del Padre y del Hijo y su Amor, es la medida, la gracia y la inspiración de nuestras relaciones con Dios y entre nosotros.

Ofrezco estas cuestiones Trinitarias para su reflexión:

Según el evangelio de este Domingo, ¿Cómo debería ser la vida de una familia?, y también, ¿Cómo sueño mi familia? ¿Qué hago para lograrlo?

¿Cómo ilumina la Trinidad Santa, comunidad perfecta de amor, la vida comunitaria de la Iglesia (de las comunidades religiosas, de nuestras parroquias, de las pequeñas comunidades a las cuales pertenecemos) y el estilo de vida que la sociedad necesita? ¿Qué imagen de Iglesia se deriva de la revelación de un Dios Trinidad?

Nuestra sociedad ha alcanzado altos niveles de comunicación global, pero esto no ha hecho más que poner de relieve las fragmentaciones sociales, los fracasos familiares, la marginación, las profundas y absurdas soledades. ¿El anuncio de un Dios amor –amor que unifica, que comparte todo, que envía, que salva- está contradiciendo el estilo de vida individualista de una sociedad de masas pero sin comunión de amor? ¿Qué debemos promover los discípulos de Jesús?

¡Feliz Día de los Padres! La Paz – P. Gil

A Word from Servant of God, Father Isaac Hecker, CSP
 Founder of Paulists and 1st Pastor of our Parish; 1819-1888

But this bringing our entire nature with all its propensities & passions under the entire guidance of the Holy Ghost is a great work. It is great in its end, painful, mysterious, dreadful in its operations. Few have any conception of it. Others seem not to have the capacities to conceive even what it is. Many live years and years in religion and do not dream of it. Some see it for a time & aim at it, but from willfulness shut it out of sight again. Some begin, advance, but fail for want of courage.
